Besides being the greatest of the World Magicians, Maro is also a Mat Musician. During his entertalnment he plays on an instrument known as the Syrian Gogglepeg. In the hands of this skillful manipulator, it produces music, that is in its effect electrifyingfrom the plaintive wail of the vio lin to apparently the full harmony of a large orchestra. The music swells and fades away leaving the forwarded audience spell bound with the magic of the instrument, and wonder struck at the skill of the player.
